

Harney county has historical lore as rich and certainly as interesting as any county in Oregon . . . in keeping with the Centennial observance this year we will present in our advertisements a series of pictures of the past which portray far better than words the story of the pioneers who built and developed the richness which is Harney county . . . shown here is the first of the series. Watch for these interesting and authentic pictures plus genuine old-fashioned savings.

WE GIVE NORTHERN
GREEN STAMPS ON ALL PURCHASES

And Ghosts Walk Here

STRANGEST CITY in all of the Steens Mountain country is the town of Harney—it was a town once. Above is a view down the main street with the old saloon standing stark and empty in the foreground, a locksmith shop next to it and in the background the blacksmith shop.